

Sisters of the Divine Savior live by our CORE VALUES of collaboration, improving quality of life, preferential option for the poor, responsible stewardship and promoting justice.

The Sisters of the Divine Savior established the annual Woman of Faith Award to affirm a woman of our day who shares our core values and is inspired by her faith to express them in action.

A WOMAN OF FAITH:

- Actively lives a life of service inspired by the Gospel
- Positively impacts and enriches the lives of people in need
- Fosters respect among people and builds a spirit of community through her life and work
- Heightens awareness of people in need through her service
- Elicits support from others through her servant leadership

ELIGIBILITY GUIDELINES

- Nominee must be actively engaged in service to others in southeast Wisconsin.
- Nominee's service should be more than a single act or accomplishment.
- We encourage nominees from diverse cultures, faith traditions, and generations.
- Women religious who primarily serve needs of their own institute are not eligible.
- Employees of the Sisters of the Divine Savior and their sponsored institutions are not eligible.
- Board members of SDS-sponsored institutions are not eligible until three years after completing their service.
- Recipient must be able to attend the award event in Milwaukee on Thursday evening, September 19, 2024.
